Creating Memories That Span Generations...

Thank you for your interest in Generations.

Spanning four generations, the Swing Club, now known as Generations, has been owned and operated by the Duplaga family. All four generations have and continue to provide quality service to the city of Wheeling and the people of the Ohio Valley.

Following in the footsteps of our predecessors, we at Generations proudly present you with our banquet/buffet menu, designed by our staff to be flexible yet concise in bringing you the quality of service you so richly deserve.

Whether it is a family get together, a company function, a class reunion or a large wedding reception, let us cater to your needs. Our professional and courteous staff are always prepared to work with you and to help coordinate an event that fits your budget. We look forward to seeing you and making your event a memorable one.

If you would like to call and make an appointment or just stop in, we are always prepared for your free consultation.
